

Since Patrick McGoohan's passing in January 2009, we have been asking our site visitors "What will you remember Patrick McGoohan for (excluding The Prisoner)?"

The survey is now closed and the votes have been counted. Over 1500 people voted, making this one of the most extensive surveys we have undertaken. Just under half voted for Danger Man (aka Secret Agent in America), a fifth for Ice Station Zebra. However, Patrick's only ever reprisal of his role as Number 6 in The Simpsons drew just 3.6% of the vote.
